

GLOBAL PSYCHOLOGY

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

OVERVIEW

Psychological science and culture are heavily intertwined and vary widely in different parts of the world. This is exemplified by looking at social, mental health, and developmental perspectives, among others, in global markets. With evolving global trends in technology, students will also learn how the field is keeping up with new and innovative practices and what that means for adjacent fields such as organizational behavior.

TRENDING PSYCHOLOGY DESTINATIONS

› Vienna, Austria

- A longtime patron of sciences, Austria is home to one of the most significant minds in psychology theory, Sigmund Freud. By visiting this prominent place of psychology theory, students gain valuable insight into how foundational principles, history, and theory affect the practice today.

› Suggested City Pairing: Prague, Czech Republic

› Amsterdam, Netherlands

- The Netherlands, ranked as a top population in both health and happiness boasts an array of psychological research and practice, including applications in aging populations. Through this, students are able to observe the care system and unique applications of this renowned practice.

› Suggested City Pairing: Lisbon, Portugal

› Copenhagen, Denmark

- Famous for their “hygge” concept, Denmark is known for some of the happiest workers in the world. In this unique environment, students are able to learn about the lifestyle and workplace practices that impact wellbeing and engagement.

› Suggested City Pairing: Stockholm, Sweden

› Santiago, Chile

- Chilean psychology practices are traced back to the 1800s and has since expanded from European influence. By visiting Chile's capital, students have the opportunity to understand how these global practices influenced the development of society and current practice in Chile.
  - › Suggested City Pairing: São Paulo, Brazil

› Melbourne, Australia

- Home to several national boards for psychology, Melbourne is the seat for the psychology practice in Australia at all levels. The diversity of this oceanic culture raises unique perspectives that the psychology community addresses in a myriad of methods.
  - › Suggested City Pairing: Auckland, New Zealand

› Portland, Oregon

- With a reputation of being quirky, local, and lovable, Portland is a progressive and purpose-driven city that's urban initiatives align with the lifestyle objectives of its Millennial and Gen Z citizens. This unique take on overall, personal, and professional wellness is particularly evident in its initiatives surrounding mental health and happiness, which students are invited to explore first hand.
  - › Suggested City Pairing: Seattle, Washington

SAMPLE ENGAGEMENT TOPICS

- › The Role of Community Support in Mental Health Care
- › Convergence of Mental Health and Human Resources Support
- › Cultural Influences on Psychology Concerns and Practices
- › Local Views on Holistic Wellbeing
- › Innovation in Psychology Practice and Research
- › Comparisons on Global Psychology Theories and Practices

TIME FRAME

- › 7-10 days in country
- › 4-6 unique organizational meeting and experiential learning opportunities
- › 2-4 days of cultural engagements

HOW IT WORKS

- › Each program has a dedicated Curriculum Coordinator to customize educational experiences to meet your learning objectives
- › During the months preceding your program, your Curriculum Coordinator works with you and company partners in-country to curate engagements within key destination industries
- › Engagements typically last 1.5 – 2 hours, encompassing a strategic presentation by the host organization, Q&A, discussion, and a tour (where possible)

Our aim is to customize each and every program to your learning objectives, and we encourage you to discuss your specific destination and theme ideas with your Program Development Manager.